Market context — how this rate was set

Build tier	Comparable market price	Source
This invoice (AR-region freelancer, ~$70/hr blended)	$5,550	Line items above
Industry survey — basic custom site	$4,000–$8,000 (36% of firms)	GoodFirms 2025
Small-business site median	~$5,000	Clutch
National freelancer / small agency	$7,000–$10,000	jim.com / agency data
Full-service agency	$12,000–$20,000+	DigitalPresent
Off-the-shelf campaign platform (for reference)	$149–$699 or ~$29/mo	Online Candidate

Rate basis: U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics median web-developer wage $90,930/yr (~$43.72/hr, May 2024); Arkansas employed web developers ~$39–$45/hr, designers ~$28–$29/hr (Salary.com, ERI, ZipRecruiter), uplifted to a ~$65–$90/hr freelance billing rate to cover self-employment overhead. Build effort of ~55–85 hours per small-custom-site estimates (spdload, 12AM Agency).

Notes

- Static site — no CMS, database, or logins; the right architecture for a campaign (fast, secure, free hosting). Priced accordingly, below WordPress/Webflow custom builds.
- The premium over an off-the-shelf platform reflects original code, a custom design system, and polished, fact-checked, compliant copy — not template licensing.
- Attorney review of campaign-finance and SMS-compliance language is recommended and not included.

Figures other than BLS wage data and vendor-published platform prices are corroborated market estimates, not formal quotes. This document is an illustrative cost estimate.
